Background and methodology of the research

Background of the research

The global L&P insurance BPO market continues to show steady growth. It registered ~7% growth in revenue in 2016, similar to its growth in 2015. In terms of FTEs, the market witnessed deployment strengthened by ~8%. L&P insurance BPO adoption remains concentrated in North America and the United Kingdom, which together account for more than 90% of the revenue. While the latter leads the market and accounts for nearly three-fifths of the global revenue, market growth is primarily being driven by North American buyers. Though Asia Pacific and Eastern Europe have been showing traction, these markets are yet to attain the size to drive market growth.

The L&P insurance BPO market is witnessing certain changes and some of the observed trends are –

- Customers' expectations are changing and demand for omnichannel customer experience is rising
- Buyers are looking for end-to-end partnerships for faster time-to-market and enhancing customer servicing
- There are constant regulatory shifts and thus services such as regulatory reporting and risk management are more in demand
- Outsourcing is increasingly being viewed not only as a cost-saving opportunity, but as a source of business transformation

The market is seeing an increasing emphasis on more complex and judgment-intensive work such as analytics, risk management, actuarial, and regulatory reporting. Robotic Process Automation (RPA) has raised the potential for cost savings and efficiency achievable with BPO, and is steadily gaining traction in the industry. This gives service providers the opportunity to deliver greater benefits to their clients and differentiate themselves from the competition. Innovation is also being seen in pricing, with traditional pricing models such as FTE-based and fixed-fee models being replaced by outcome-based pricing models.
