Everest Group's RPO research is based on three key sources of proprietary information

1

- Everest Group's proprietary database of over 2,000 RPO deals (updated annually)
- The database tracks the following elements of each RPO deal:
 - Buyer details including industry, location, and signing region
 - Deal details including ACV, term, start date, hires managed, primary pricing structure, process coverage, and geographic coverage (at country level)
 - Technology ownership and maintenance
 - Global sourcing

2

- Everest Group's proprietary database of operational capability of 21 RPO service providers (updated annually)
- The database tracks the following capability elements for each service provider:
 - RPO clients, revenue, service suite, and employees
 - Recent RPO-related developments (investments and partnerships)
 - RPO clients split by geography, industry, scope, and buyer size
 - RPO hires split by geography, source of hires, and type of hires
 - RPO delivery locations and level of offshoring

3

- Ongoing buyer surveys and interactions
 - Everest Group's executive interviews and data collection from RPO buyers
 - The data contains the following detailed buyer perspectives about RPO deals:
 - ◆ Drivers for adopting RPO and buyer-provider relationships
 - ◆ The level of buyer satisfaction and the underlying reasons

Service providers covered in detail in the analyses

SEVENSTEP

The analyses in this report are presented at two levels:

- Overall market analysis that highlights the market composition/dynamics
- The current market trends based on deal activities in the last five years

The sample size varies for different analyses based on the deal detail availability

Confidentiality: Everest Group takes its confidentiality pledge very seriously. Any contract-specific information collected is only presented back to the industry in an aggregated fashion

Overview and abbreviated summary of key messages

Dimension

Key RPO market insight

1

Market overview and key drivers

- The global RPO market is one of the fastest growing single process HRO markets. It touched the US$2.4 billion mark in 2015, backed by a 17% growth rate over 2014
- Buyers headquartered in North America are the dominant adopters of RPO, followed by United Kingdom. That being said, greater adoption by local buyers can be seen in some of the emerging RPO markets of Asia Pacific and Continental Europe

2

Buyer adoption trends

- Single-country RPO accounts for a majority of the deal activity. Interest around Multi-Country RPO (MCRPO) engagements is high, however, the size and scope of such deals is witnessing a downward trend. In fact, very few incidents of global mega-sized deals were witnessed of late
- Manufacturing, hi-tech & telecom, and financial services are the biggest adopters of RPO globally. The encouraging shift in adoption by industries, such as healthcare & pharma, services, and retail, has added fire to the RPO growth engine

3

Solution and transaction trends

- Inclusion of value-added services (employer branding, talent communities, workforce planning, etc.) have almost become table-stakes in RPO, especially among mature (second/third generation) buyers
- The base-fee-plus-variable price continues to remain the most prevalent pricing structure. Such a construct enables service providers to make dedicated investments for their clients, thus fostering a more partnership-oriented approach between the buyer and service provider. However, instances of gain-sharing are starting to emerge

4

Emerging themes and areas of investment

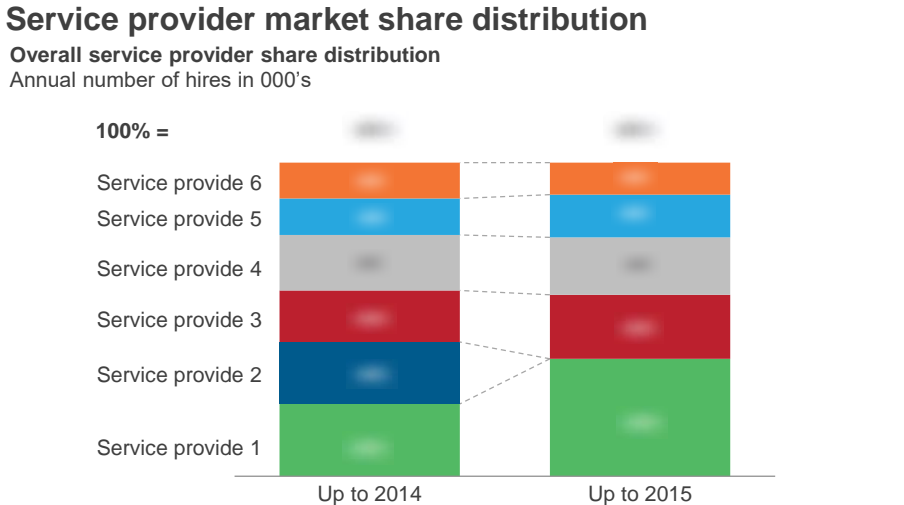

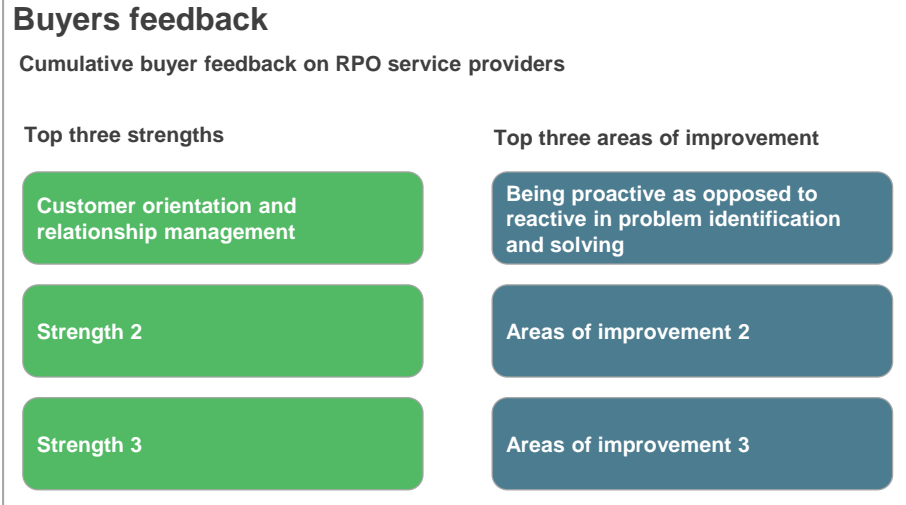

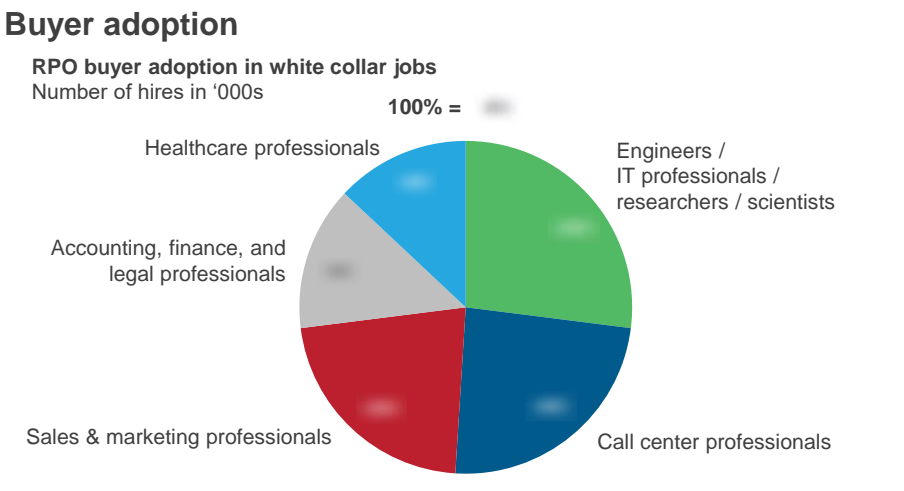

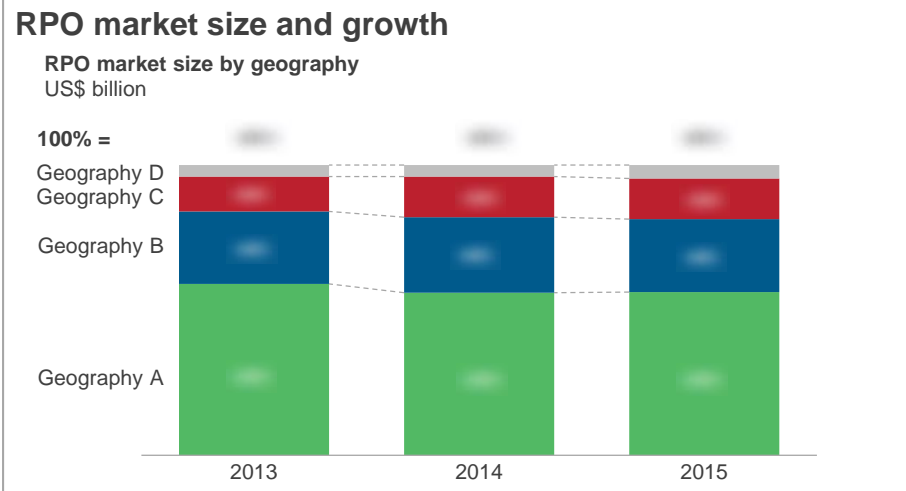

- The market is witnessing separate, more targeted offerings around niche areas such as veterans, diversity hiring, and outplacement, by service providers. Not only does this help address buyer needs better, it also provides for differentiation for the service provider
- Almost all major RPO service providers are investing in developing talent advisory capabilities. Such services bulk up the value proposition of existing RPO offerings, especially among the first time buyers and can also act as potential door openers for new business opportunities

Service provider landscape

- RPO continues to remain an intensely competitive and fragmented market. Providers from all backgrounds (staffing, broader BPO, and pure-play RPO) have tasted success in this fast growing market

This study offers five distinct chapters providing a deep dive into key aspects of the RPO market; below are four charts to illustrate the depth of the report

Additional RPO research recommendations

The following documents are recommended for additional insight into the topic covered in this research. The recommended documents either provide additional details on the topic or complementary content that may be of interest

1. Talent acquisition in Asia Pacific: Diverse demands ensuring growth (EGR-2016-3-R-1764); 2016. This report provides a comprehensive coverage of the talent acquisition services market (including RPO and MSP) in Asia Pacific and analyzes it across various dimensions such as market overview and key business drivers, buyer adoption trends, solution and transaction trends, and service provider landscape
2. Blended model in talent acquisition: A rosy path strewn with thorns (EGR-2016-3-R-1724); 2016. Today, many organizations are viewing talent management, including talent acquisition, through a singular lens as opposed to the traditional method of segregating it into contingent and permanent – blended recruitment is emerging as the new mantra of the day. This report explores the various nuances of executing the blended recruitment model and provides insights into market dynamics, execution levers, and models of engagement in blended recruitment outsourcing
3. Recruitment Process Outsourcing – Service Provider Landscape with PEAK Matrix™ Assessment 2016 (EGR-2016-3-R-1834); 2016. The global RPO market witnessed good traction in 2016 with over 200 new contracts signed. The market in North America showed an uptick as compared to last year and the market in Asia Pacific continued to exhibit strong growth. Last year, especially, saw a lot of M&A (Mergers & Acquisitions) activity in the RPO market. As the market is becoming more competitive, service providers are taking the inorganic route to strengthen their capabilities in different geographies, industries, or recruitment technology.
