Background and methodology of the research

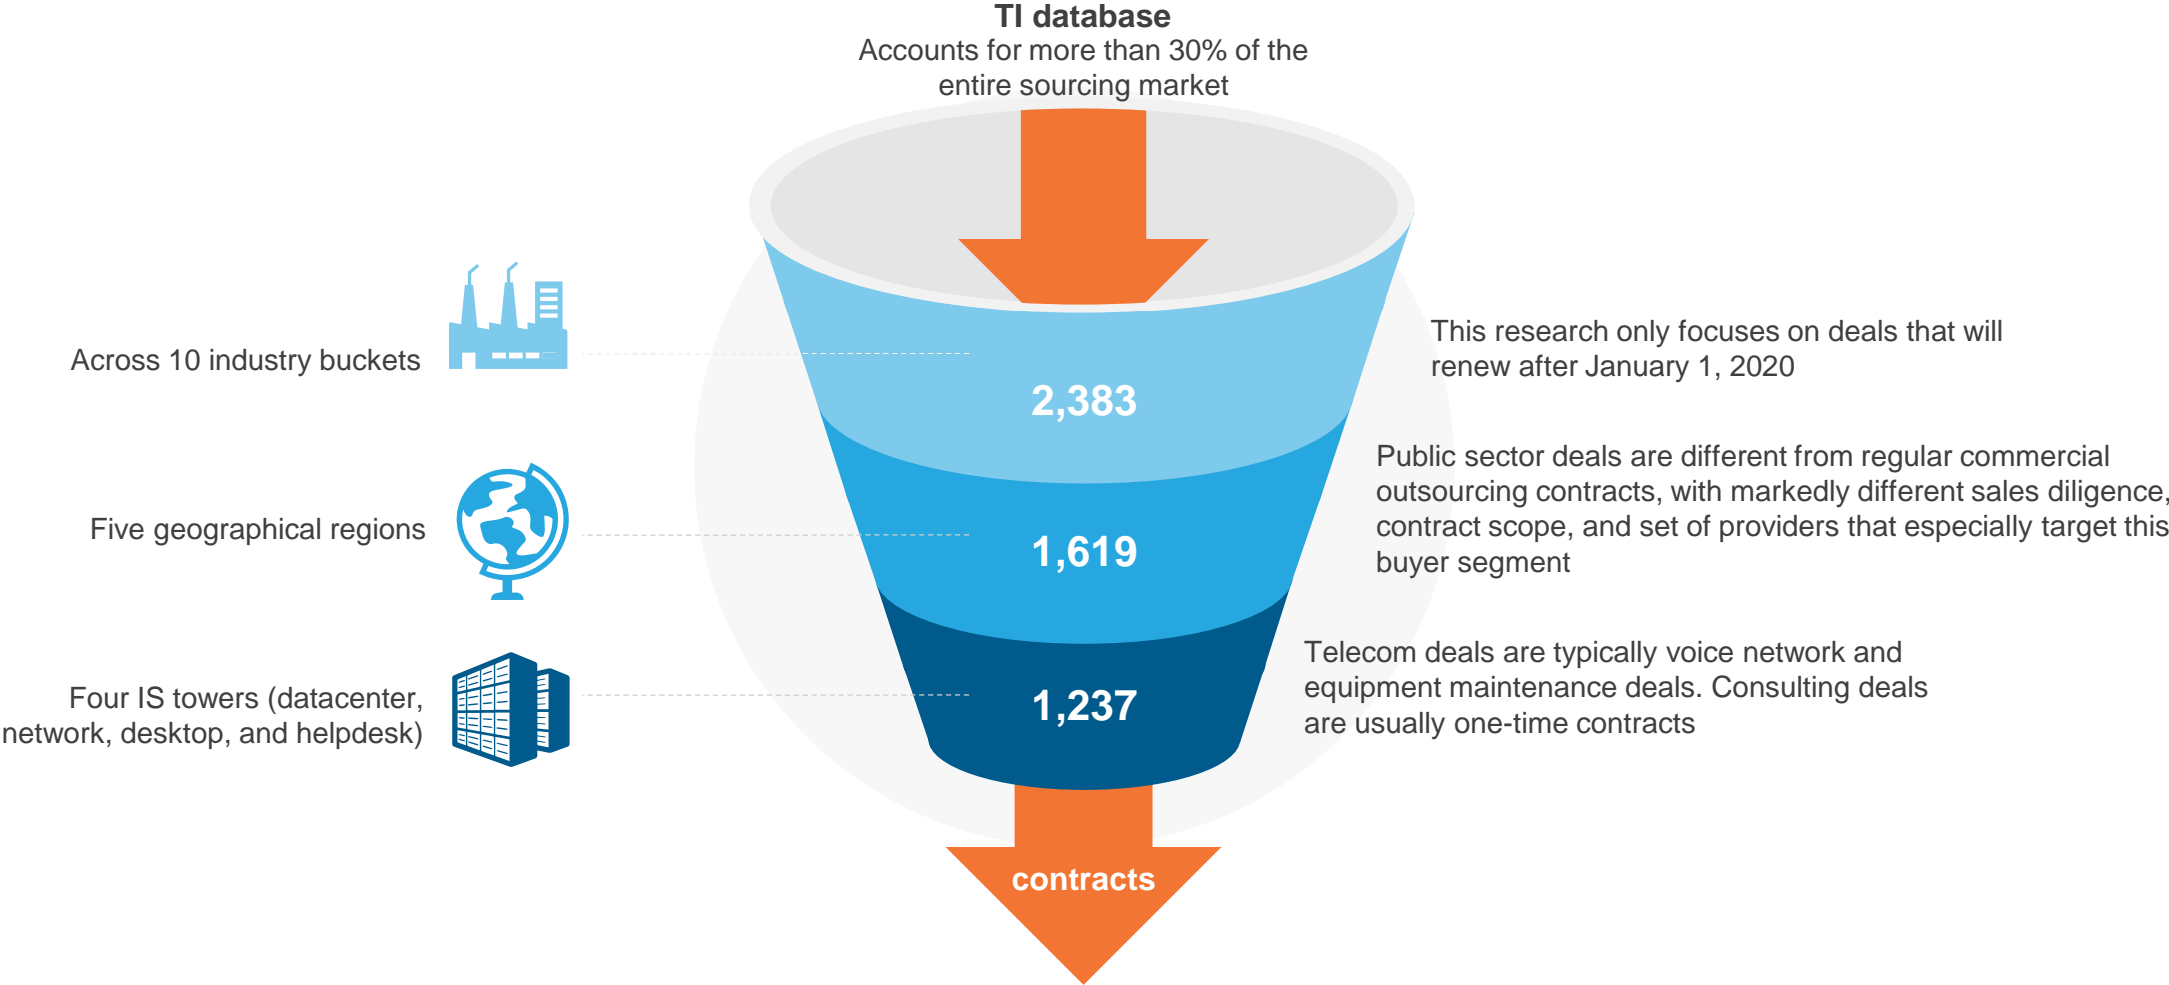

Background

- Sourced services are a large, multi-billion dollar market, characterized by deals lasting for an average of two to three years. Most of these deals are originally signed via a competitive process involving Request for Proposals (RFPs), capability assessment, and shortlisting of service providers
- Renewals provide an opportunity to non-incumbent players to expand their wallet shares amid disruptive factors such as saturation, slowing growth rate, and new and more agile competitors. They also allow buyers a chance to make course corrections based on lessons learned during the lifetime of the just-concluded engagement and adjust their sourcing strategies to suit the current business environment
- This research analyzes renewals coming up in the next two years, with a focus on Infrastructure Services (IS) contracts

Scope

- Analysis of the ITS and BPS markets, with focus on deals to be renewed in the future
- Key vertical, geographical, and scope-based analysis, with a focus on IS and bundled contracts
- Analysis of IS and bundled contracts by scope (datacenter, network, helpdesk, and desktop) across geographies

Our analysis is based on Everest Group's Transaction Intelligence Database, the most comprehensive record of publicly announced outsourcing deals

We analyzed 1,237 outsourcing deals that expire on or after January 1, 2020.

This study offers three distinct sections providing a deep dive into key aspects of upcoming contract renewals in infrastructure services market; below are four charts to illustrate the depth of the report

Sum of TCV of deals for renewal; US$ billion

Sum of TCV of deals by signing geography – ITS; US$ million

Deals currently running with specific IT functions in scope; Number of deals

IS renewal opportunities by vertical and scope
