Objective

The Attended Automation Playbook empowers enterprises at various stages of their attended automation journey with insights, methodologies, and practical advice to help develop winning strategies and achieve best-in-class outcomes from their attended automation investments.

Overview and abbreviated summary of key messages

As enterprises embark on their digital transformation journey with increasing focus on improving customer and employee experiences, attended automation is rapidly gaining adoption as a key technology to elevate stakeholder experience. However, enterprises often struggle with implementing attended automation effectively to achieve maximum benefits. This playbook describes a step-by-step approach to adopt and scale up the use of attended automation, tapping into various frameworks, such as the Everest Group Capability Maturity (CMM). It also highlights attended automation market characteristics, challenges to attended automation adoption, best practices for the attended automation, and enterprise case studies.

Some of the findings in this report, among others, are:

- Key applications of attended automation that elevate stakeholder experience include on-the-job training and process guidance, on-demand data processing, and employee assistance
- Attended automation plays a critical role in enabling enterprises to adopt and scale citizen model by Improving automation accessibility, focusing on more relevant use cases, and improving the ease of getting started

Enterprises' attended automation journey

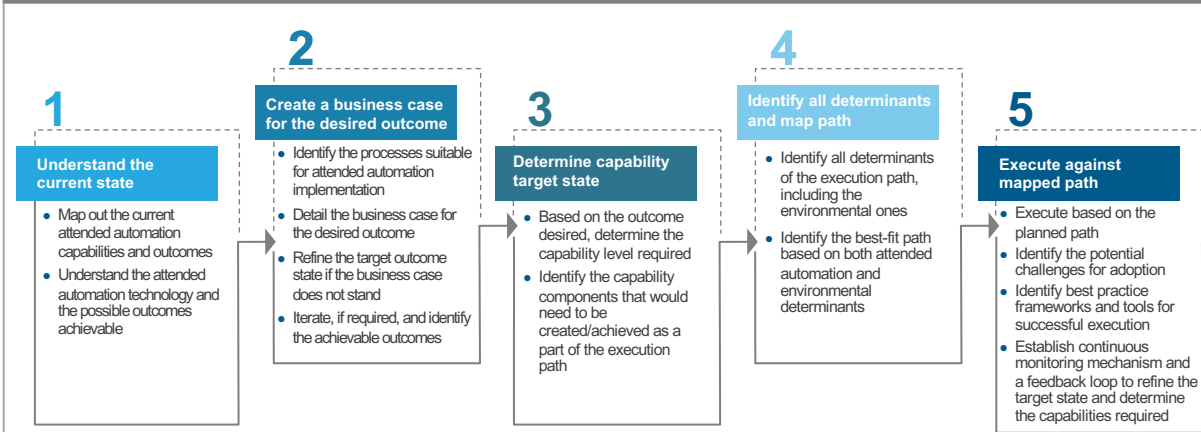

- Enterprises can break down their attended automation journey into five distinct steps: understand the current state, create a business case for the desired outcome, determine capability target state, identify all determinants and map path, and execute against mapped path

Accelerating the attended automation journey

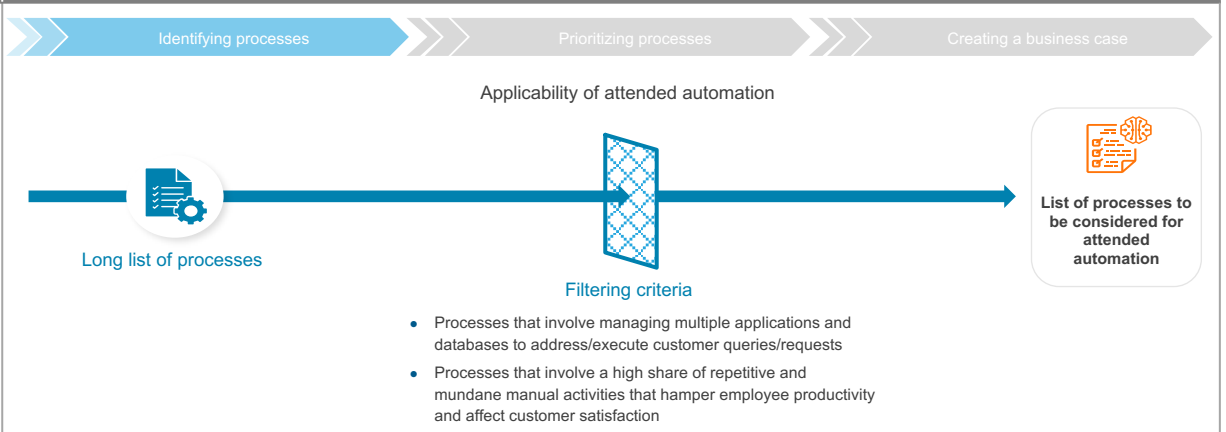

- Change management, lack of healthy transformation pipeline, operational silos, talent and skill gap, and lack of senior leadership support are some of the challenges enterprises face in scaling attended automation initiatives
- Some of the best practices are around selecting the best fit enterprise-grade solution, effective talent management, change management, and the role of CoE
